FLOWERS

BANISH DREARINESS

During the long cold Winter days a pot of Flowering Bulbs indoors adds brightness to the Home. In Spring, Tulips, bursting into bloom when Nature discards her winter cloak, are a forecast of better days to come.

A Thriving Plant

Is the Hydro-Electric Plant, built and owned by the citizens of Winnipeg

The growth of the Winnipeg Hydro has been rapid and sustained, and its saving to its owners in lowered electrical rates now totals over $25,000,000. Winnipeg enjoys rates second to none on the continent, and the loyal support of the users of Hydro energy will guarantee a continuance of these rates through the years to come.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

ENTRIES

1. Entry Fees. These will be found printed above each class, and must accompany entry.

2. Entries for Vegetables, Honey, Fruits and Plants close at 10 p.m. of the Thursday preceding the opening of the show. Entries for Cut Flowers close at 6 p.m. on the Saturday preceding the show. Double entry fees for all entries reaching the Secretary's Office after the above hours. No entry will be accepted after 10 p.m. of the Monday preceding the opening of the show.

3. Exhibitors may make as many entries in any section as they wish, but only one prize will be awarded any exhibitor in any one section. Where an exhibit is from a garden worked by two or more persons jointly the entry shall be made in their joint names and not more than one prize shall be awarded in any one section to any of such persons, either jointly or individually. For the purpose of this rule a man and his wife shall be treated as joint workers.

SHIPPING INSTRUCTIONS

4. An exhibit that is shipped in shall be addressed "Winnipeg Garden Show, Winnipeg." If sent by express prepaid to Winnipeg, it will, without charge, be unpacked and placed in position under the direction of the committee in charge.

5. If such an exhibit is to be returned prepay return charges and written instructions to the Secretary must accompany same. If desired, it will then be repacked and shipped back by officials of the exhibition without charge. The greatest possible care will be taken to prevent damage of any kind, but the Committee of Management will not be liable for any damage that may occur either in transit or during the Exhibition. Floral exhibits should be shipped so as to arrive at the show by 10 a.m. Tuesday, August 30th. Exhibitors are asked to notify the Secretary of probable time of arrival in Winnipeg.

SPACE

6. In case of necessity, the Management Committee reserves the right to vary the space given to any exhibitor.

PLACING AND MAINTAINING EXHIBITS

7. No exhibits may be placed except as directed by the management.

8. All exhibits must be placed by 11 a.m., Tuesday, August 30th, after which hour exhibitors will not be permitted to remain in the building.

9. No number, exhibitor's name or other means of identification, other than the entry ticket, must be attached or placed on any exhibit until after awards have been made. "Cards for Variety names as supplied by the secretary are exempt from this rule."

10. Exhibitors of Cut Flowers are requested to renew or replace faded or withered specimens as often as convenient. If an exhibit is replaced by a different Variety, exhibitors are asked to supply the name of the new variety. When exhibits become unsightly the management reserve the right to remove them.

CONTAINERS

11. Milk and Cream bottles must on no account be taken from the show building.

12. Floral exhibits other than Floral Baskets, Vases, Pansies and Petunia Sections, must be exhibited in the Cream and Milk bottles supplied.

The Show Management will not hold themselves responsible for damage to containers exhibitors may use for the above sections.

REMOVING EXHIBITS

13. No exhibits will be permitted to be removed until 8 a.m., Saturday, Sept. 3rd, except by permit from the Board of Management.

14. All exhibits not removed by 6 p.m., Saturday, Sept. 3rd, may be disposed of at the discretion of the Management.

CLASSES

15. Canned Goods, and Honey Sections are open to all residents of Manitoba.

16. Fruits, Plants and Flowers will be shown in two divisions; vegetables in three divisions.

- (1) Amateur or novice.
- (2) Advanced amateurs open to all
- (3) Market Gardeners only.

PRIZES

17. Announcement will be made at the time of the Exhibition as to the distribution of prizes.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

18. Exhibitors will not be admitted to the show during the judging, except Directors.

19. Vegetables and flowers must have been grown by exhibitor.

20. Plants exhibited, or from which flowers are cut for competition, must have been the property of the exhibitor for at least eight weeks previous to date of the show.

21. Honey and other bee products must be the production of bees owned by exhibitor, and must be the product of 1927.

22. All exhibits in the canning sections must be the current year's production.

23. The word "pot." as used in connection with pot plants, shall be taken to mean any container in which the plants are exhibited.

24. No prize will be awarded to any unworthy exhibit. In the absence of competition, or if the exhibit be of inferior quality, the judges are instructed to award only such prizes as in their judgment the exhibit deserves.

25. The judges may commend articles, although not on the prize list; and the Board of Management will take the matter into consideration.

26. Protests against the awards of the judges must be made in writing by 5 p.m., September 1st. Each protest shall be accompanied by $2.50, which will be forfeited if the protest is not sustained. The decision of the Board of Management shall be final.

27. No advertising signs of any kind will be permitted in the show, except where special privileges for the same have been secured from the management. In no case can any exhibits for competition be used for display advertising.

28. Though the Committee of Management will give the best care possible to all exhibits, no responsibility is assured in case of theft, damage or loss in other ways.

29. In case of any misunderstanding or dispute as to the meaning or application of any rule, the Board of Management reserves the right to interpret such rule as it shall see fit.

30. Payment of prizes is contingent upon the receipt of sufficient revenue to meet all current expenses and prizes. In the event of such revenue being not sufficient to meet them in full, the management reserves the right to reduce the prizes accordingly.

INSTRUCTIONS TO EXHIBITORS

1. Read all the rules carefully.

2. Read the Prize List, and on the Entry Sheet write plainly the numbers only of the section in which you wish to compete.

3. Indicate also very clearly any Specials for which you wish to compete.

4. Mail Entry Sheet to the Secretary, Winnipeg Garden Show, Dept. of Agriculture, Parliament Bldgs., Winnipeg.

5. Bring Exhibits of Vegetables, Honey and Plants to the Winnipeg Skating Rink, Langside St., just off Portage, on Monday, August 29th, as early after 9 a.m. as possible. Floral exhibits early Tuesday morning. All exhibits must be left absolutely as they are staged for judging.

6. Call at the office for your tags if they have not reached you by mail previously. Consult your Prize List, and be sure the tags are on the right articles.

7. The management will do all in their power to have everything running smoothly. They ask all exhibitors to co-operate by exercising all courtesy and patience during the unavoidable rush of setting up the show.

8. Only exhibitors who have paid at least ($1.00) one dollar in entry fees shall be granted an Exhibitor's Admission Ticket.

9. After the judging, make a list of your winnings and hand to the secretary, in order that the clerk may check his bookkeeping.

10. Bear in mind the fact that the Show Committee does all the work gratuitously—with no personal gain. They will, therefore, appreciate your kindly assistance in making the show better known and better attended.

PRIZE LIST

Class A—GARDEN COMPETITIONS

IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE WINNIPEG GARDEN SHOW

NOTE.—In sections 1 and 4 outdoor scoring of gardens will be done during the summer. Displays from these gardens will then be made at the show, and these exhibition displays will also be scored. Exhibits can be put in at the show in these sections only by those whose gardens have previously been entered for scoring. Awards in these two sections will be on the basis of the totals obtained by adding the scores on the garden to the scores obtained in the Show.

These Garden Competitions are open only to residents of the City of Winnipeg, City of St. Boniface, Municipalities of East and West Kildonan, St. James, Charleswood, Assiniboia, Fort Garry, St. Vital, Transcona, and Brooklands District of Rosser.

Entries from persons outside of the City of Winnipeg must be made through an Association that will assume the duties of the preliminary judging.

All entries in the Garden Competitions Class must be made before July 26th. Two judgments will be made; viz, about Aug. 2nd for the first and Aug. 9th for the awarding of the Shaughnessy Trophy. (See special award No. 25.)
